GENERAL REMARKS

what is schaubau?

schaubau is an international summer school which takes place once a year in the heart of Dessau – the city of the Bauhaus. A design camp, which is intended for all creative students, craftsmen and -women, creators of value of all designing disciplines like design, architecture and art.

The schaubau summer school is dedicated to a real challenge that should be explored, faced and implemented with creativity and hands-on-mentality by 15 participants in one week.

The focus will be on the rooms of the VorOrt-Haus, which is a school that was abandoned for 12 years and was revitalised by students of the design department till 2014 and is now revitalised by the VorOrt e.V. The workshop is accompanied by a renowned workshop leader and the VorOrt-Supportteam.

A framework programme supplies a chequered productive and sunny summer week in Dessau.

TASK

what is the topic of the first schaubau summer school in 2018?

The target is to design a workspace for future designers-in-residence-programmes with an additional haven to rest (or sleep) which also can be understood as „tiny hostel“.

The participants of the 1st schaubau summer school are not only pioneers because they are the 1st schaubauers ever, but because they are building the basis for all the participants of future schaubau summer schools. Where as the topic shall be developed holistically. Concepts for space and furniture shall be designed and implemented and also user scenarios and graphic design are components of the schaubau summer school. For that reason a pool of material as well as the schaubau support staff accompanies the participants.
